Launch

Looking upward on a clear, dark night
My eyes begin to see the countless lights
From the silence I can hear the call
To be part of something bigger than us all

Launch into the arms of the Savior,
Wanna lift away from this fallen behavior,
I,ve found a place I can travel forever,
In the deep deep space of God,s love.

I,ll be blasting when my training is done
A mission more lasting than the fire in the sun
Sign me up Jesus, come and buckle me in,
Hey I,m feeling weightless! You,ve forgiven my sins.

Launch into the arms of the Savior,
Wanna lift away from this fallen behavior,
I,ve found a place I can travel forever,
In the deep deep space of God,s love
